

Please do not weaken the Indiana Privacy law which is currently protecting Indiana residents from harassment by telemarketers. We do not want calls from banks, credit card companies, long distance carriers, etc. The Indiana law - as written - has made a tremendous difference in the quality of life of Indiana residents.